

ELIGIBILITY: Each of the men on the list were either born or enlisted in WA, or lived in WA for some time. They died from wounds received or illness contracted at Gallipoli between April 25, 1915 and August 31, 1921 (the official Commonwealth War Graves Commission end date for consideration of war dead).

CASUALTIES BY REGIMENT/BATTALION

Most of the dead belonged to forces raised wholly or partly in WA:

- 11th Battalion (WA): 350
- 16th Battalion (WA and SA): 320
- 10th Light Horse Regiment (WA): 162
- 12th Battalion (Tas, WA, SA): 54
- 28th Battalion (WA): 52

BOY SOLDIER: The youngest person on the list is Hugh Brian O'Donnell (left), a miner from Kanowna, near Kalgoorlie-Boulder. He was 16 years and eight months old when he was killed in action on May 12, 1915. He is buried at the Lone Pine Cemetery at Gallipoli.

NAMES: Some of the men were known under alternative names or alternative spellings. These alternatives are given in brackets
